

Terracotta Horse

from the Tang Dynasty

THE fine arts division handled a very intricate job, the packing of a century old terracotta horse. The Sancai-glazed pottery horse originated from China holds a value of more than $140,000.

A very satisfied customer pleased with our packing and shipping of his first buy being a sandstone Khmer Nandi insisted that Tomlinson Antique House use Rhema to pack his terracotta horse.

Tomlinson Antique House, one of the prominent antique dealers in Singapore, carries some of the most exquisite antique collection in the Asian region. Customers come from all corners of the world.

We are certainly pleased to be handling the delivery of Tomlinson's fine arts to their proud owners and to have the satisfaction of knowing that each smooth delivery entails happiness not only to the owner but to us, movers too.
